

HOPE-PAGE PUBLIC SCHOOLS POSITION OPENING- MUSIC TEACHER

OUR BELIEFS: We are Hope-Page! We are learners, leaders, achievers, and believers. We are Hope-Page! We will change the world! We learn from our mistakes and grow. We lead by example with joy and purpose. We strive to achieve and succeed. We believe {in ourselves, our peers, and our community} you matter. Our goal is to be a positive change in the world.

THE POSITION: Hope-Page Public School is seeking a PreK-12 Music Teacher. The Music Teacher is responsible for the overall implementation of the district music program. The teacher would be responsible for all district/state choir/band performances, two local vocal/band concerts, school musicals, and any other extra-curricular music events as assigned. The Music Teacher would be directing choir and group music lessons. We offer a competitive benefit package including health, both sides of TFFR paid by employer, dental/vision, flex spending account, tuition reimbursement for Master's program, and 403b retirement plans. We also offer various coaching/advisory roles in our extra-curricular activities.

THE DISTRICT: We are a school district that currently has over 160 kids enrolled PreK-12. Our current facilities are set up as the elementary school is located in Page and the junior high-high school is located in Hope (approx. 14 miles apart). We currently enjoy a positive, strong working relationship with approximately 52 full- and part-time staff members. We are fortunate to have a very active and supportive parent group. Students are offered just about anything they are excited about in our small districts and we are proud of that. A few of those offerings include: numerous extra-curricular activities, 1:1 with technology, dual credit/online/ITV courses, a growing CTE program, and becoming a Top 20 School.

OUR COMMUNITY: Home of the Raiders- we are located in Steele and Cass counties in rural, farming communities. We are home to numerous businesses including Hope Electric, EEE Inc., Go Promo, Warrior Mfg., three local elevators, two great grocery stores, and multiple banking institutions. We are wonderful, safe communities that offer many recreational opportunities including golfing, swimming, and parks and are located less than an hour from Fargo.

THE QUALIFICATIONS: Must have or be willing to obtain a degree in Music Education. Must have or be willing to obtain North Dakota Teaching License through NDESPB. Must have a valid ND driver's license.

TEACHER QUALITIES:

- Must be an excellent musician and be creative and self-motivated
- Must be able to instruct students in the technical aspects of music, conduct rehearsals, and evaluate student performance
- Must have knowledge of musical styles

- Must have the ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with students, peers, families, and communities.
- Must have the ability to plan and implement objectives relevant to music education
